

Brian Lewis

Musician, Instructor

Brian Lewis has been a professional musician for 25 years as a sideman, studio/session player, songwriter producer and teacher. He has performed on over 70 albums and produced 21 CD's for various artists, toured the United States with various artists and performed with the finest musicians in Nashville and Los Angeles. He is dedicated to the art and practice of musical expression through disciplined study, and enjoys the privilege of passing this knowledge onto the future generations of musicians and music lovers. He studied music at University Of Colorado and Loretto Heights College. He specializes in advanced technique and harmony, music theory and improvisation. His years as a session player have allowed him to develop an expertise in the diverse styles of rock, jazz, country, rhythm & blues and funk.

Studio Policies

Registration Fee:

Wenzel Music will collect a $20.00 Enrollment Fee from all new and returning students.

Tuition:

Tuition is $30.00 per half hour, payable a month at a time.

All tuition is due on the first of the month.

If tuition has not been received I will not teach the lesson.

No Make Up Lessons:

Because of my large student load, I do not offer make-up lessons.

If you are unable make your lesson you must still pay for the time since I reserved it for you.

You will not be charged for lessons that I cancel if I am sick or on vacation.

I only accept dedicated students so if you won't make your lesson time a priority then do not sign up with me. I cannot accommodate the varying schedules of more than 50 students so there are no exceptions.

Holidays:

There are no lessons on Memorial Day, Labor Day, July 4th, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Years Eve and New Years Day.

FREE Lessons:

If you refer someone to me and they mention your name when they enroll and sign the contract.

I will give you one free lesson.
